

Opportunity for Students: Concept sketch and make 1 garment

The RED DRESS SURVIVOR GALLERY is a unique exhibit of red dresses to be created by local International Academy of Design Fashion Design students inspired by local heart survivors.

The Gallery will spotlight ten (15) local survivors. Each survivor display will consist of the survivors' story, the designers' inspiration for the design, photos of the survivor and designer, as well as concept sketches. A student will be chosen to be paired with each survivor.

Dates to Remember

Meet the Survivors & Designers (January 17, 2008)

- Held at IADT Tampa 6:30pm – 7:30pm
- Meet & Greet the Survivors and Designers
- Photo shoot of Survivors and Designers

Sketch unveiling (February 1, 2008)

- Held at Macy's Westshore Mall
- A community event held on National Wear Red Day to spotlight the Survivors, Designers and dress concepts.

American Heart Association Annual Luncheon (May 15, 2008)

- Held at A la Carte Pavilion
- Dresses and behind the scenes documentary will be debuted

IADT Annual Fashion Show (June 14, 2008)

- Dresses will be shown during 2008 Fashion Show.
- Documentary of Behind the scenes will be shown.